

THE GREAT GAME: AN IMPERIAL ADVENTURE

In the high days of the Raj Captain Toby Larburgh meets a stranger in Calcutta's Great Eastern Hotel. Over a drink Toby tells of his adventures in the mountains of British India's northern borders. His quest to find out what lay behind the death of a local Imperial agent took him to the far-flung reaches of the British Empire, the distant princely state of Ghondabaur. When he reaches...

Reader's Opinions

This book is published by Endeavour Press

Old-fashioned yarnThis tale would be at home in an edition of the old pulp magazine, Adventure, a century ago. The story reads like a Bedford Jones or Talbot Mundy novella, without their literary accomplishments. The book was somewhat entertaining, replete with love-at-first-sight, a miserable villain hiding in the wings, etc. An okay...
