

STRANDED WITH A SPY

Escape from hell? To hell was more like it! When Mallory Dawes, suddenly infamous in the States, decided to take that vacation to France, her problems were just beginning: a lost passport. A car swept out to sea. Missing travelers' checks. And a mysterious, if intriguing, man who always seemed to turn up just when she was in trouble... Cutter Smith--code name: Slash--was told to keep the beautiful blonde in his sights. But as his interest in her veered from...

Reader's Opinions

When considering this book you must take account the fact that it's 300 pages. It's a short, quick, to-the-point but interesting read; if you're looking for something easy and interesting without too much thought required then this fits the bill. The romance is cute, but of course kind of hustled along quickly, since the book's so short,...
