Reader's Opinions

Batman v Superman wasn't an amazing movie. On the other hand it did manage to be entertaining and I don't really agree with all the criticism it received. The art book for the movie is good, but it isn't great. My main gripe is that it has a lot of photos and stills from the film, and not as much concept and production art as I would...

Would have loved more concept artwork on level with the Force Awakens art book, but I will still treasure this as a favourite in my collection. After all, I've hopefully scored myself one of the limited edition signed copies...
