

ЧЕСТ

За Есма миналото е като ракла, която предпочита да държи заключена на пуст таван, но тя се отваря и при най-лекия повей на вятъра. Изсипва живота ѝ навън – и незначителното, и значимото. От раждането на майка ѝ...

Reader's Opinions

Could not put this down, have enjoyed all her books, this one depicts so well life in a Kurdish village, the tough love in being born female, the challenges of immigrants, the difficulty in adapting to different cultural norms and the universal disappointments and often reluctant or guilt-ridden joys of new-found love.
