

HITTING IT BIG

Six years ago, Billy Grant had a night he never forgot losing his virginity to the jock of his dreams, Mitch Crestfield. But Billy fled afterward, not wanting to hear Mitch's regrets. Now Mitch has hit it big, winning the lottery, and Billy finds himself invited to Mitch's celebration. When Mitch...

Reader's Opinions

A very nice story. Nothing remarkable, but the page count makes it rather hard for this story to be something outstanding. The story serves its purpose - it makes you feel warm inside and makes you smile in that way, that watching or reading about sweet reunions usually do.

One of my favorite tropes is younger brother and older brother's best bud falling into romance and other things. One of my least favorite conflict-inducing parts of a story is non-communication. This story hits both and draws right in the middle. Nothing new about this story that you haven't read before, but it's not a bad quick read....
