

BADLANDS: THE HUNTER

Miner's Gulch 1861, just beyond the border of Kansas Territory in New Mexico Territory. Ranchers find fifteen-year-old Lori Perkins in the wilderness on the edge of death. When she awakens, she tells a grizzly story of murder, vengeance and a ghostly rider that killed her family. Beside himself, Sheriff Rufus Mackie calls upon a mysterious Hunter to deal with the revenant that apparently is still stalking Lori. Hunter leads Elizabeth Winslow who...

Reader's Opinions

"Badlands" is a short story with an interesting take on the American Wild West. When the local authorities aren't enough to investigate the strange goings-on in a dusty mining town, they summon the eponymous protagonist (the "Hunter") to see things through. The story revolves around a series of violent murders and bizarre paranormal...
