Reader's Opinions

This fourth book in the series focuses primarily on the props, costumes, and sets that were built for the Hobbit movies. Reading through this, its pretty mind blowing to see just how much detail and work goes into making a movie like this. Most people never think about the difference between elven and dwarvish eating utensils for instance....

This was probably my least favorite Hobbit book thus far, but overall, this is another strong entry in the behind the scenes series about The Hobbit movies. This book focuses on costumes and sets and how...
