Reader's Opinions

I liked the other books in this series but wasn't particularly fond of this one. The main character, Ellie, was very strong and talented in the other books which I loved, and though she continues to be that way in this book, I found myself constantly irritated by her attitude of things. Her expectation of others, her belief in her own...

I have just finished a week of late nights digesting the final part of this trilogy - torn between wanting to savour the final part of Ellie's journey and being unable to put it down! I couldn't imagine why or how Ellie was going to end up in Hollywood as it didn't seem like her kind of place. Sure enough as the story unravels, it is...
