Reader's Opinions

Nine authors write romantic stories in historical settings. The first three stories are connected. But the remaining stories are not. Each story can be read as a stand-alone and is mainly connected to the others by the theme of small town love stories. The authors did a great job of staying with the theme, incorporating faith, forgiveness,...

This review appears on my blog: <http://youngaspiringwritersanonymous....> This was a collection of nine novellas by nine different authors. As I have done with previous novella collections, I am going to do a brief review of each novella and then an overall review of the collection. So let's get started. Run of the Mill by Susan Downs:...
