

LA LISTA DI SCHINDLER

Che cosa significava esattamente finire nella “lista di Schindler”? E chi era in realtà Oskar Schindler, giovane industriale tedesco cattolico amante del lusso e irriducibile corteggiatore di belle donne? Avvalendosi anche della testimonianza di chi lo conobbe, Thomas Keneally ricostruisce la straordinaria esistenza di questo personaggio ambiguo e contraddittorio. Da molti considerato un collaborazionista, Schindler sottrasse uomini, donne, bambini allo sterminio hitleriano, trasferendoli dai campi di concentramento ai...

Peek Inside the Book

Aue sent an office boy with a message to the companys original accountant, a Polish Jew named Itzhak Stern, who was at home with influenza. Aue was a political appointee with little accounting experience. He wanted Stern to come into the office and resolve the impasse over the bolts of linen. He had just sent the message off to Sterns house...

Reader's Opinions

history buffs

Remember that splendid 7 Academy Awards winner movie Schindler's List? Imagine that, the book's even better. A very detailed and well-researched semi-biography, written in a very fluid fiction style, and presenting a lesser angel of mercy but a more flawed everyday...
