

PARTIES

Carl Van Vechten's famed satirical portrait of upper-bohem New Yorkers and Harlem jazz clubs. David Westlake has killed someone, and his wife, so she herself reports, has committed suicide! Hyperbole, the reader quickly perceives, is the common language of these sozzled socialites who spend their nights in Harlem speakeasies and their...

Reader's Opinions

Assorted cast of well-to-do New Yorkers spend their days and nights together drinking a really insane amount of alcohol during Prohibition, gossiping, attending parties and drinking. Did I mention the drinking?! A roller coaster ride of a book!
