Reader's Opinions

This fairy tale involves a soldier that is under a spell to be bearlike for seven years. He does his penance and meets his true love. After he fulfills his promise he is able to marry his girl. I really like this fairy tale because the man has to suffer to gain his goal. Once he has reached his goal he is able to...

Great pictures but it bugs me when people (in this case the illustrator) purposely try to make the story diverse by having people different races when it doesn't make sense. For instance, the baby is white and a few but not all of his siblings are black and one looks Asian? I tell myself they're neighbor kids when I read...
