Reader's Opinions

This was a good but heartwarming romance that is very heartfelt and emotional yet sexy and intense. I enjoyed the characters of Liv Preston and Noah Travers. You get a chance to see the progression of their love; theirs was not a quick and easy love story because they had to overcome some issues, but love does prevail. I loved how the...

Liv and Noah's story was realistic. It wasn't all butterflies and daisies but it also wasn't angsty. I don't know how the author did it but somehow she made their situation completely relatable, which is rare in the stepbrother game. This wasn't the usual stepbrother taboo romance. It was refreshing and sweet and...
