Reader's Opinions

On the one hand, it seems like Veitch is being very cautious in trying to mimic Moore's stories. To a large degree, he succeeds. this feels like a very organic continuation of Moore's story. But Moore was not constrained by this sense of stability and was much more dynamic on both the micro and macro level. This is solid, but not captivating....

Haven't read Swamp Thing for years. I remember it being better than this. Maybe I was thinking of the Alan Moore issues, or maybe I've out grown it.
