Reader's Opinions

My kids and I enjoyed this! It was very clear to me that the author wrote this to teach his sons to be good men :)

"Together, we (the family) made our home and our place in the world. With family, we are never alone." The first 75% of the book feels like a 3 star affair. The types of animals the family encountered were hard to believe and I was not comfortable with the father being the narrative of the story....
