

IT'S MOVING DAY!

Tucked away beneath a big tree on the edge of a field lies a home --- a small burrow --- for many. In every season, a different creature makes its home here and then moves on, making room for the next occupant. After a long winter's sleep, the woodchuck relocates to another burrow, but...

Reader's Opinions

What do you suppose can be found lurking in a woodlot burrow? Its Moving Day explores the ebb and flow of a subterranean den and the variety of woodland animals who seek its shelter over the changing seasons. The initial resident is a...

The different inhabitants of a the same burrow over time. Cute story. Nice illustrations. A good way to introduce hibernation to younger children.
