Reader's Opinions

What I loved about this book was that it showed the process. Each scene, or creature, or character was documented as it went through the design process. With regards to the creatures especially this was incredible. In many cases I liked earlier version other than the final one, especially with the Thunderbird and the Occamy. I also...

This was a great way to show how much work concept artists do in order to bring stories alive. With a movie like Fantastic Beasts, there was a lot of things to design, starting with how all the beasts would look like. The artists deserve the recognition and this book. I am sort of amazed by their hard work.
