if they make me watch that movie one more time, I will fall down on my knees and beg for mercy Wendy Mass, Finally //

Reader's Opinions

It may come as no surprise to most people, but I was an awkward pre-teen. I always believed that once I became a teen that gawkiness would magically disappear and I would become the belle of the ball. Unlike Cinderella that didn't happen, but it was my faith in milestones that kept me...

I had loved 11 Birthdays and so was especially disappointed with this pseudo-sequel (really, pretty much a completely independent story). Much of it takes place in a mall, following the main character who has finally turned 12 and will now get to do a whole list of things her family said she had to wait until she was 12 to do - like...
