Reader's Opinions

based on the real death of director Tom Ince aboard WR Hearst's yacht, the historical novel develops the character of Abigail Kinsolving as a secretary to Marion Davies. Years later, after spreading her mother's ashes at San Simeon, Abigail's grand-daughter attempts to solve the mysterious death of Abigail. An interesting portrayal...

This is a fictionalized account of a "murder" that took place at Hearst Castle in the 1920's. Not a great book, but interesting if you've visited the castle and want to read about film stars from that era.
