

NOTORIOUS

Set against the tumultuous backdrop of 17th-century England, Notorious is award-winning author Kathryn Kramer's most compelling romance yet—a story of intrigue, desire and a love stronger than destiny. She is Devondra, daughter of "Gentleman James," a highwayman who steals from the wealthy to give to the poor. But now, with James captured and condemned to death, Devondra enters into...

Reader's Opinions

There aren't many books about this time period. I thought it was well researched and had a very good plot. It reminded me a bit of the WICKED LADY but the heroine was not as evil. After reading this story I am very interested in highwaymen so I will be reading the sequel - Desire's Disguise. As for the cover on the ebook version - I...

MehThis had an interesting setting that I don't think I've encountered before in a HR. The H was Cromwell's London magistrate. He was definitely not puritanical, but he came from a poor background and had felt Cromwell was a better choice for England. So, he had fought on the side of the Roundheads in the Civil War. He'd obviously become...
