Reader's Opinions

This gives me a much better appreciation of the movie and a sense of scale to just how much work and planning went into making it the success it turned out to be.

The slipcover is pretty nice and the book is HUGE. There is a lot of art and sadly a lot of it is very generic sci-fi concept art (alien cities, colorful people etc.), it's well done but it's just nothing too special. Then there's a few two page spread images that have visibly lower resolution than the other pictures. On pages 30-31...
