Reader's Opinions

The book delivers exactly what the title promises though there are spoilers, including the end of the film. So if you want to be surprised, don't open the book until you have seen the film.

This is an incredible artwork book - again its part of the excess stock purchase I made just after Christmas and its amazing. The book is a heavy high quality publication. It is printed in landscape which lends perfectly to the large glossy images from the film and concept work. I didn't realise...
